Home owning offers quite a chance to make a profit as the result of the improvement of a property. Many houses are sold much below their real value because they have been allowed to get into an unattractive condition. They may be substantially built, but the lack of superficial repairs makes them fail to show for what they are worth.

An enterprising and industrious owner can make money on a place like that. If he is skillful with tools he can make some improvements for him self. And then he can make the property much more attractive by cultivating grass and setting out young trees and shrubbery.

Many houses that are really quite good, look dingy and disreputable because they have no well cared for lawn and they lack adornment. Any industrious owner can supply these lacks, and in a year or two have a pretty home. Trees and shrubs draw attention from many defects.

The result of such an effort is usually to induce the neighbors to clean up and improve their property also. The location begins to take on new style and spirit, and property grows more valuable without much money having been spent.

The movement for civic improvement has in this way led to advance in value of a great deal of real estate. Neighborhoods that formerly were disorderly have caught the spirit of improvement, and are beautifying their places. Every home owner on such a street profits by this development, and if he wants to sell he finds that he has made a gain far greater than if he had put his money out at interest.

A home owner could do a clever stroke of business, by buying such a run down home, tuning it up with repairs and decoration, inducing his neighbors to join the march of improvement, and then selling out. But most people who thus improve property become so in love with it that the possession of the place means more to them than the dollars they could

WM. LEE IS SURPRISED ON

62ND BIRTHDAY

William Lee, resident of Verona, says he was never so completely surprised in his life as he was on Sunday, August 20th. Mr. Lee enjoyed the occasion of his sixty-second birthday on Saturday, and had talked with his wife about ordering freezers of ice cream and inviting Lee's Concert Band, of which his son, Homer F. Lee is director, and their friends to help him celebrate the event. Somehow, it slipped his mind, but his good wife remembered. With the assistance of two of the neighbors and their families, the parents of the band boys and the boys themselves, they gave him a complete surprise.

A few of the guests, not enough to arouse suspicions of Mr. Lee, gathered at his home, and for reasons best known to themselves, they chose to sit in the yard on the east side of the house, which was at the rear of the house. In a short time the other guests, with the band boys, gathered in the front yard, and the band started one of their famous selections. It was then that Mr. Lee "nearly fell over." He went around the house, and with hands up-raised, exclaimed "if it isn't Homer and the boys." Not realizing the reason for the "large gathering, one of his neighbors asked him if he didn't have a birthday Saturday.

The rest of the afternoon was taken up with music by the band, and in a short time the ladies of the party had tables filled with everything imaginable of good things to eat. Following a sumptuous meal it was topped off with ice cream and home made cakes.

In the evening the band boys went on to Aurora where they enjoyed a swim in Tooker's pool, and returned to Mr. Lee's home where they furnished more music and had another helping of ice cream and cake.

Enjoying this delightful occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. S. Martz and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brickey and children, of Verona, Mrs. Fred Frear and son Charles, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Montie Carmack and children, members of Lee's Concert Band, Mr. and Mrs. Lee.

ENJOYS DAY IN NEOSHO

The relatives of Mrs. Will Moore of Neosho very pleasantly surprised her on Sunday, when they gathered at her home on Sunday morning and invited her and Mr. Moore and daughter to spend the day with them in the city park. They enjoyed a good old-fashioned reunion, and at noon they opened hampers of many good things to eat, and after the delightful meal there was an abundance of food left for the evening meal which was served before the family party broke up. Mrs. Moore is a sister to J. H. Johnson of Monett, and related to other members of the party.

Those enjoying this event were: Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Gregory and daughter, of Aurora; J. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Johnson and children, Mrs. A. D. Alsop, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Horine, of Monett, Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore and daughter, of Neosho.

PICNIC AT VERONA

The following party motored to Verona Sunday evening where they enjoyed a swim and picnic supper: Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Manley and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman-Neil and Mrs. Frank E. Jones, Mrs. S. T. Clutter, Mrs. W. J. Mills and Mrs. Earl Augur.

Elbert Terry of near Purdy went to Sedalia, Mo., Saturday, to attend the State Fair.

Miss Wilma Saxe, book-keeper for Charles Beebe, editor of the Neodesha (Kansas) Daily Sun, and Miss Isabelle Johnson, also of Neodesha arrived Saturday evening and visited a short time and went from here to Washburn where they visited, Miss Saxe returned to Monett and left Monday morning for her home. Miss Johnson remained in Washburn for a longer visit. She will return home next week. Miss Dorothy Saxe who is visiting in Washburn will accompany her home.

SENATE PASSES TARIFF BILL

Highest Protective Measure in History of Government.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Providing the greatest protective tariff in history for American agriculture and industry, the McCumber tariff bill tonight was on its way to final enactment into law before October 1.

Drafted to bring in $400,000,000 revenue annually, to regulate foreign commerce and protect Americans against cheap foreign competition, the bill passed the senate late today by a vote of 48 to 25.

It was sent to conference immediately, where difficulties between the house and senate will be adjusted.

Buffeted by 17 weeks of senatorial storms, the bill will ultimately throw the highest protective tariff wall in history around every agricultural and industrial interest in the United States. Political leaders of both parties are preparing to hurl it into the maelstrom of the November elections as the technical national issue.

Its supporters declared the bill will permanently protect American enterprise against invasion by cheap foreign competition, give the American farmer a living return from his fields and produce $400,000,000 annually in revenues.

Its opponents charged the measure will tax the American consuming public $2,000,000,000 annually for the benefit of a comparatively few, will send soaring the cost of existence and destroy America's foreign markets.

The bill, starting its voyage through the senate on April 20, last, has survived the bitterest political attack in recent years. It represents a compromise in tariff opinions between the "old guard" leaders who controlled the senate finance committee, the insurgent Republicans and the powerful Republican tariff bloc which represented agricultural interests.

Senator Gooding, Republican of Idaho, chairman of the tariff bloc, said today the measure is the "first tariff bill in history to give the American farmer a 'square deal.'" Senator McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota, who directed enactment of the bill, declared its passage would be fully justified by the American people because it gave Americans the right to feed, clothe and supply Americans.

From the Democratic side came warning of bankrupt purses, of soaring taxes, empty cupboards and of bread lines.

Senator Simmons, Democrat, of North Carolina, who led the minority in opposing the bill, branded it as an "indefensible steal on the American pocketbook."

L. M. LIST RESIGNS

AS SUPERINTENDENT

L. M. List, of Tulsa, Okla., elected superintendent of Monett public schools, has resigned his position. For the past two years Mr. List has been administrator of a large estate in Tulsa. He expected to finish his work by the middle of August but someone brought suit against the estate, which action will probably delay the complete settlement until after January 1st, 1923. For this reason Mr. List was compelled to send in his resignation.

The Board of Education at a special meeting Friday, August 18, accepted his resignation and elected Lester V. Galbraith, high school principal, to be the new superintendent.

Mr. Galbraith needs no introduction to our people, being well known to the people of Monett. His work as principal of the Monett high school was beyond criticism. The Board of Education has entire confidence in his ability to administer the affairs of our school system. He is not only a strong advocate of athletics in our schools but believes also in all other activities. One of his particular aspirations is to raise the standard of scholarship of our schools.

The prospects for a successful school this year are especially bright. Harry Warren, a graduate of Teachers College at Springfield, is to be head athletic coach and science teacher. He has a fine athletic record, winning a letter every year for four years in football, basketball and track.

The Times will publish a list of the teachers for this school year in Tuesday's issue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McIntosh will leave Monday morning on an overland trip to Gillette, Wyo. They will combine business with pleasure, Mr. McIntosh going to look after some homestead land taken up by the late Mabel McIntosh. They will visit Dick Wright's family and other relatives while there.

CAUSE OF APPENDICITIS

When the bowels are constipated, the lower bowels or large intestines become packed with refuse matter, that is made up largely of germs. These germs enter the vermiform appendix and set up inflammation, which is commonly known as appendicitis. Take Chamberlain's Tablets when needed and keep your bowels regular and you have little to fear from appendicitis.
